

THE DOUGLASS HOTEL

BROAD AT LOMBARD STREET
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

TELEPHONE, PENNYPACKER 8320

(C O P Y)

March 1, 1939.

Mr. A. Manley,
101 Montgemery St.,
Newark, N.J.

Dear Sir:

The hotel bill for the umpires is as follows:

John Craig	$41.00
Fred McCrary	36.50
Total	77.50

I can not give you the exact dates that these bills were for as they were in and out all summer long. However, the men knew what the amounts were when they checked out at the end of the season, and will verify same.

I am very sorry if these bills caused any inconvenience. I tried to collect them all summer long and due to my insistance, they had Mr. Greenlee and Mr. Wilson guarantee them.

However, in the future, I will now know how to act under the same circumstances.

Very truly yours,

Wm. E. Maguire, Prop.
Douglass Hotel.